

Frog's Leap 2006 Sauvignon Blanc Bless John Williams, the owner of Frog's Leap. The guy is really trying to make low-key, well-made, delicious wines, without making a big splash; or without leaving a big footprint. This Sauvignon Blanc is emblematic of that philosophy. There are aromas of fresh lemon peel, while on the palate, it's soft and lovely with a touch of sweet fruit in front. But the best thing about it, is that it finishes dry with good acidity (3.25pH); and that it has only 12.7 (listed) alcohol; and it was made from organic grapes.

July 31, 2007