

Dan Berger's Vintage Experiences
The Weekly Wine Commentary

EXCEPTIONAL

Frog's Leap 2006 Cabernet Sauvignon I almost never see under 14% alcohol Cabernets, and then when I do they often have flaws. This wine (13.7% alcohol) has none. It smells and tastes like Cabernet with a near-perfect herbal black cherry scent. It needs a few years to open up. It will not score well with others, but they probably wouldn't know a great Cab if it bit them in their taste buds.

February 12, 2009