

Dan Berger's Vintage Experiences
The Weekly Wine Commentary

EXCEPTIONAL

Frog's Leap 2007 Cabernet Sauvignon "An absolutely classic style of wine that may or may not be the most concentrated in the knot, but the aroma is classic Napa with herbs and dried cherries. The mid-palate is silky and has only moderate tannins, and there's an elegant food-friendly finish. It's a wine not unlike the great Cabs of the 1970s in style."

February 11, 2010