

2009 SAUVIGNON BLANC
Rutherford Napa Valley

WINE ENTHUSIAST

“With no oak, this wine’s inherent fruit stars, showing citrus, melons and peaches. With crisp acidity, it’s clean brisk and entirely dry, despite relatively low alcohol.”

August 2010

{ST. HELENA STAR}

WINE OF THE WEEK — “The profile leans a bit toward the New Zealand style ... grapefruits, green grass, Meyer lemon, lemon peel ... very citrusy and fresh. Mouth-puckering in a very good way. Just what you need on a hot St. Helena day.”

June 17, 2010

THE Press DEMOCRAT

WINE OF THE WEEK — “The aroma of this fresh, fragrant wine is lime, grapefruit, and pears, but the real surprise is the low alcohol (12.6%) and the really crisp taste, unlike so many Sauvignons that are actually a bit sweet. Great with delicate seafood dishes.”

May 31, 2010